Rules

- All entrants in the MISA Woman of the Year Award have to be nominated by another person and become nominees.
- As nominees, they will be contacted by MISA and have to accept or decline, in writing, whether they wish to enter.
- On accepting to participate in the Award, nominees will receive official entry forms.
- Entry forms must be signed by all specified people therein.
- Entry forms must be submitted to MISA on/before 31 March 2012. No late submissions shall be accepted.
- Entry forms and documentation (additional documentation may be requested) will not be returned.
- Only nominees who are registered female MISA members at the time of their entry will be allowed to participate.
- The judges shall select 1 (one) finalist per the following regions:
Northern /Highveld | Free State/Northern Cape | Natal | Eastern Cape | Western Province
- The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
- Finalists and their nominators will be notified in writing by 31 July 2012 and will be officially announced per region in August 2012.
- All finalists will be interviewed during October 2012.
- The selection committee's scores will be submitted to auditors to validate the process.
- All finalists will attend the MISA National Executive Council Gala Dinner on 7 November 2012 where the MISA Woman of the Year 2012 will be announced.
- Previous finalists may be nominated again. Previous and current winner may not be nominated for 3 years.
- The prizes for the nominator and winner will be determined by the MISA National Executive Council and the prizes are not transferable.
